Film Production Tax Credit

There is no online recipient disclosure for this program.

Job Training Incentive Program

Disclosure link: <https://edd.newmexico.gov/business-development/edd-programs-for-business/job-training-incentive-program/program-results/>

Program recipients can be found on the state's economic development department website. The data table on the program's webpage includes the month the project was approved, the approved budget, the projected number of trainees, the projected average wage, and the project's location. There is no data for the actual amount claimed; job and wage outcomes; or capital investments. A point was deducted from the projected wage category since the data table only discloses the trainee average wage rather than a specific wage amount.

High Wage Jobs Tax Credit

There is no online recipient disclosure for this program.

Local Economic Development Act

Disclosure link: <https://edd.newmexico.gov/community-development/local-economic-development-act/program-results/>

Program recipients can be found on the state's economic development department website. The data table on the program's webpage and PDFs for fiscal years 2017 through 2020 include the project location, the approved amount, number of projected jobs, the projected capital investment amount, and the projected average employee salary. There is no data for the actual amount claimed; job and wage outcomes; or actual capital investments. Four points were deducted from the projected wage category since the data table only discloses the average salary rather than a specific salary amount and only has this data for the 2021 fiscal year.

PDFs for fiscal years 2015 and 2016 have data for project descriptions, subsidy status, jobs created, and actual capital investments, but because the data isn't recent it didn't receive any points.
